

Dr Yash Gulati

Senior Consultant - Division of Spine Surgery & Division of Joint Replacements
Indraprastha Apollo Hospital
New Delhi

An Orthopaedic par excellence, Dr Yash Gulati is well trained and has been doing Joint Replacement Surgery for over 15 years. He is also an expert in the field of Spine surgeries. In the span of his career, he has treated several patients that include prominent sports persons, army personnel, and foreign diplomats.

Education

- MBBS, Maulana Azad Medical College, University of Delhi, India, with
- Distinction in Preventive and Social Medicine
- MS (Ortho), Maulana Azad Medical College
- M.Ch. (Ortho), University of Liverpool, England
- Diploma Sports Medicine, Royal College of Surgeons, Dublin, Ireland

Experience

- Currently serving as Senior Consultant in Division of Spine Surgery & Division of Joint Replacement, Orthopaedics, Apollo Hospital in New Delhi, Honorary Consultant to Indian Armed Forces, Adjunct Professor at Indira Gandhi National Open University in New Delhi, and Honorary Surgeon to Delhi Cricket Team.
- Previous experience includes - Head of Orthopaedic Unit at Ram Manohar Lohia Hospital in New Delhi and Locum Consultant Orthopaedic Surgeon at St. James Hospital at Dublin in Ireland. He has received Orthopaedic training in England and Republic of Ireland for more than 6 years and also did various courses and fellowships in USA, Germany, England, Brazil, Australia and Thailand.

Expertise

- Minimal Access Spine Surgery
- Joint Replacement

Awards & Achievements

- Introduced Endoscopic Microdiscectomy for Disc Prolapse in India for the first time.
- Organized and conducted number of workshops on Spine Surgery and Joint Replacement. His paper entitled “Why Anterior Approach to Spine” was awarded the Best Paper Award in Annual Orthopaedic Conference in 1996 in New Delhi.

- Invited to deliver prestigious Guest Lecture on “Management of Thoracolumbar Fractures” in Annual Conference of Indian Orthopaedic Association in 2003.
- Invited to Indonesia for Golden Jubilee Orthopaedic Conference where he demonstrated Live, Total Knee Replacement and Total Hip Replacement. This conference was graced by the President of Indonesia.
- He has been awarded the Padma Shree in the year 2009 for his achievement in the field of medicine.